To All Members of our Unit.

Dear Comrades,

Sub: OBITUARY

UCO Bank Retirees' Association deeply regrets to inform all our members the passing way of Sri Ravindrakrishna on Wednesday 14/11/2018 at about 2.45 A.M. at his residence at Bangalore. He is one of the persons' who relentlessly worked for the welfare of the Association. With his fore thought he was instrumental in introducing the various welfare measures for the members of our Association.

UCO Bank Retirees' Welfare Trust is his brain child and all the five Welfare Schemes are products of his far sightedness and a sense of dedication to serve the Retirees in all possible ways.

While in service he held various posts in "UCO BANK OFFICRES' ASSOCIATION", Karnataka and he was the General Secretary of the Association at the time of leaving the Bank.

He was a leader respected by all not only in Karnataka but also by all the Ucoites all over the country. He held various posts in "All India UCO Bank Officers' Federation".

He was instrumental in the formation of "All India UCO Bank Pensioners' Federation" and single headedly managed the affairs of the federation for three years. There after he was continued as the Vice President. In the last GBM held at Kolkata he was made as one of the "Resource Person".
